

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

SOURCE OF FUNDS IN FY '01

MESSAGES FROM ANNUAL FUND CHAIRS

Dear Alumni and Friends,

As we prepare to welcome the largest class in history to the University of Maryland School of Law, I want to take this time to thank you for your unflagging support and commitment to the School. Charitable contributions made to the Annual Fund and Building Campaign, scholarships and memorials, and through bequests and planned gifts enable our students, faculty and programs to be among the best in the nation.

We are reaping the benefits of increased exposure, stature and success, and we could not do it without your help. State funds comprise a mere 18 percent of our operating budget. Private philanthropic support from our alumni and friends fills the gap between tuition revenue and state fund allocation. Simply put, we could not make our dreams realities without you.

This Report of Giving recognizes with gratitude and pride the philanthropists who supported the University of Maryland School of Law between July 1, 2000, and June 30, 2001. Your generosity secures our quality and position as a top-tier law school now and in the future. My deepest thanks goes to each and every one of you.

Karen H. Rothenberg, JD, MPA
Dean
Marjorie Cook Professor of Law

Hamish S. Osborne '86, Maryland Law School Club Chair

Many thanks to everyone who renewed his or her commitment to the Maryland Law School Club this year. As a mainstay of the Annual Fund, the Club recognizes donors who give $1,000 or more in unrestricted funds. The commitment of donors at this level is exemplary, and it is gratifying to see the number of Law School Club members who renew this commitment, year after year.

Working together with fellow alumni and generous friends to make the School of Law the best it can be is one reason to support the Annual Fund. Another even more satisfying reason is seeing the difference all levels of philanthropic support can make. The School of Law now ranks among the top institutions of legal education in the country. Next year, a state-of-the-art law school building will open its doors for the first time. The excellence of our faculty is rewarded by the endowment of academic chairs and support for specialty programs. The admissions process is more competitive than ever, and the number of applicants listing Maryland as their "first choice" is increasing dramatically.

Incoming students are indeed fortunate to be entering the School of Law now, poised as it is on the verge of even greater accomplishments. They are fortunate as well to be entering a law school that has such dedicated alumni and friends, who care so much for the institution and its continued success. Again, my thanks to all Law School Club members who continue to demonstrate their support for the School of Law in such a significant way.

Leslie S. Ries '80 and Thomas C. Ries '79, Annual Fund Co-Chairs

The School of Law has been a part of our lives for almost 25 years. We recognize the important role that the law school has played in serving as the foundation for our legal careers and many of the friendships we have maintained during this time.

We believe in the Annual Fund and support it because we know how valuable our contributions are to the School and, in particular, to the students. The educational experience that the law school provides is a source of pride to us and to all graduates. We take comfort in knowing that our contributions to the Annual Fund help shape future generations of lawyers, businesspeople and public servants.

On behalf of the students who benefit from your generosity, the faculty whose programs and scholarship reach new heights of excellence, and the public that is served by the outstanding practitioners and clinicians from the University of Maryland School of Law, we thank you for your continuing support of the Annual Fund.

RESTRICTED GIVING

Scholarships and Tribute Funds

The funds shown below were created by generous alumni and friends. These funds are invaluable in helping the School of Law attract and retain outstanding students. More than 85 percent of our law students receive some sort of financial aid, graduating with as much as $70,000 in loan debt. The generosity of those whose names are listed here helps to ease that burden.

LOAN FORGIVENESS

Alongside the benefits offered to students through scholarship funds, special friends of the School of Law have gone one step further to create a loan repayment assistance program. This program was designed to ease or erase the loan debt of students who want to practice public interest law, one of the reasons many students come to Maryland in the first place.

UNRESTRICTED GIVING

The programs and services depicted in the bar chart below are supported by the Annual Fund. Unrestricted funds provide the dean with the flexibility essential to responding to unexpected and unmet needs. With the help of this critical source of funds our students become more articulate writers, stronger litigators, better advocates and more polished practitioners.

Recognizing Law School Leaders

Teaching leadership skills and providing opportunities for students to excel is part and parcel of our academic mission. Your leadership gifts set the example and provide the catalyst for the pursuit of excellence at the heart of the School of Law's mission. Members of the Maryland Law School Club (donors of $1,000 or more annually) exhibit the type of leadership we want to foster. By doing so, they visibly demonstrate their commitment to the School of Law and legal education.

David Hoffman Society

Named for the founding member of the School of Law, the David Hoffman Society recognizes individuals who donate $5,000 or more in a single year for their extraordinary commitment to advancing legal education.

This group went beyond the call of duty and made gifts of $2,000 to $4,999 in the last

MATCHING GIFT COMPANIES

Alumni and friends can easily increase their gifts to the School of Law by completing a matching gift form from their companies (or their spouses' companies). Many law firms and for-profit companies have matching gift programs and filling out the corresponding form is a simple and painless way of doubling (and in some cases tripling or even quadrupling) one's generosity! To find out if a company has a matching gift program, ask a human resources representative. We thank the following companies for supporting their employees' philanthropy.
