EDITOR'S PAGE

The REVIEW is pleased to present as its lead article for this Spring Issue the second and final installment of Mr. John W. Sause's article entitled "Association 'For the Meretorious Purpose of . . . Mutual Benefit': A chronicle of the Building and Loan Industry in Maryland from 1852-1961."

In announcing to our readers the retirement of Dean Roger Howell as of the end of June, 1962, the Editors and Editorial Board feel proud to have been students and to have served on the Review during his final years. They wish him continuing happy and productive years far into the future.

To his successor, Professor William P. Cunningham, our Assistant Faculty Advisor for the last two years, the Review extends its best wishes for a continuing happy relationship and for a steady growth of the Review and the School to the highest possible attainment.
