Features

22 Out of South Africa
By Bob Guldin
The progressive, post-apartheid constitution is admired throughout the world.

Sidebars: Jim Hanks’ corporate counsel; Judge Dennis Davis visits; Brown International Fellows

30 China: From the Ground Up
By Steve Seidenberg
As the legal system evolves, it carries along with it cultural and social change.

34 Faculty Essays: Testing the Limits of Power
The Ties That Bind: International Law as Peacemaker
By Peter Danchin
The Power of the President
By Michael Van Alstine

Cover illustration by Steve Rawlings
Departments

3 Dean's Message

4 UMLaw Cites
Wit and wisdom from faculty on legal issues of the day

6 Focus on Faculty
New books from Sherrilyn Ifill and Mark Graber; the onset of blogging; a cast of caricatures

8 Conferences and Symposia
Global environmental gathering; Community Justice works to end violence; human rights and culture; federal corporation law; inside the jury room; clients' views on lawyers

14 Community: Students and Alumni
Student events; graduation; profiles; Marcus Wang ('08), Cris Kirk ('99), The Hon. Lawrence Rodowsky ('56); Reunion headlines alumni gatherings

40 Faculty
Promotions and Research professorships; Distinguished Visitors; New faculty profiles

42 Faculty Emeritus
Garrett Power's career, built on a strong foundation of history and property rights

44 Faculty Publications, Presentations, and Honors

48 Perspectives
An opportunity of a lifetime for a student in South Africa

49 Board of Visitors

50 Docket
A year of events at the law school