
JOURNAL OF HEALTH CARE LAW & POLICY

Volume 9

Number 2

SYMPOSIUM

BEYOND THE NEW MEDICAL MALPRACTICE LEGISLATION: NEW OPPORTUNITIES, CREATIVE SOLUTIONS, AND BEST PRACTICES FOR PATIENT SAFETY, TORT REFORM AND PATIENT COMPENSATION

SYMPOSIUM

- The Role of Medicare in
Medical Malpractice Reform William M. Sage 217
- A New Prescription for America's
Medical Liability System Paul J. Barringer, III 235
- Reform of Medical Liability and Patient Safety:
Are Health Courts and Medicare the
Keys to Effective Change? Randall R. Bovbjerg 252
- Health Courts and Malpractice Claims
Adjudication through Medicare:
Some Questions Timothy Stoltzfus Jost 280
- An Advocate's Response to Professor Sage Toby S. Edelman 291
- The Patient-Physician Relationship and its Implications for Malpractice Litigation Debra Roter 304

ARTICLE

- "But I'm an Adult Now . . . Sort of"
Adolescent Consent in Health Care
Decision-Making and the Adolescent Brain Paul Arshagouni 315

COMMENTS

- The Increasing Necessity of the Tort System in Effective Drug Regulation in a
Changing Regulatory Landscape Anne Erikson Haffner 365
- Time for Plan B: Increasing Access to Emergency Contraception and Minimizing
Conflicts of Conscience Erica S. Mellick 402

