

In Memoriam

1940s

Robert M. Goldman '41
Marvin Mandel '42
The Hon. E. Mackall Childs '49
Evan A. Chriss '49
Martin Z. Vogelhut '49

1950s

The Hon. Alfred T. Truitt Jr. '53
Harold H. Balsler '57
Frederick Steinmann '57
Glenn C. Parker Sr. '58

1960s

Saul E. Schwartz '60
The Hon. Joseph A. Matera '61
Gerard J. Callanan '62
James W. Kirk '62
Raymond W. Fullerton '63
David R. Glickman '66
Gerald M. Richman '66
Larry E. Blum '68
Paul E. Krieger '68
Emily M. Rody '69
Frank R. Weathersbee '69

1970s

Louis G. Omansky '71
Robert P. Hillerson '74
Alexander D. Wilson '78

1980s

Sharon D. Smith '82
Cassandra L. Costley '85
Vicki A. Margolis '89

1990s

Sonya D. Dockett '90
F. Robert Hunter III '92

'The Complete Gentleman'

Robert M. Goldman '41

Robert M. Goldman '41, one-time managing partner of the former Baltimore law firm of Frank, Bernstein, Conaway and Goldman, died May 22. His legal career spanned more than half a century.

"I can tell you that practicing law with him was a pleasure both professionally and personally," retired Maryland Court of Appeals Judge Lawrence F. Rodowsky '56 told The Baltimore Sun. Rodowsky had been a partner with Goldman at Frank, Bernstein, Conaway and Goldman from 1966 to 1980, when he went on to the bench. "He was always the complete gentleman. I considered him the firm's manager who in his quiet way kept everyone happy."

In 1982, partners and friends established the Robert M. Goldman Scholarship Fund in tribute to Goldman and his love of the law. "As a lawyer, he was such a comfort to his clients, and his advice was never wrong," DLA Piper partner Shale D. Stiller said in The Sun's obituary. "He was always admired for his judgment and fairness."

The son of L. Edwin Goldman, a Baltimore attorney, and Rita Goldman, a homemaker, Robert Martin Goldman was born in Baltimore and raised on Fords Lane in Northwest Baltimore. He earned his law degree in 1941, graduating first in his class and as a member of the Order of the Coif. While in law school, he served as editor of the Maryland Law Review.

After serving in World War II, Goldman returned to Baltimore and joined his father's law firm, Nyburg, Goldman & Walter, which in 1966 merged and became Frank, Bernstein, Conaway and Goldman. From 1966 to 1983, he was managing partner, and then of counsel from 1987 to 1992, when the firm was dissolved, and he joined DLA Piper, where he was of counsel until 2000.

To make a contribution to the Robert M. Goldman Scholarship Fund, please contact the Office of Development and Alumni Relations at 410-706-2070.