CONCERNING THE REVIEW

The REVIEW announces the election of Messrs. Richard B. Brenner and Robert M. Goldman, of next year's Third Year Day Class, as Co-Chairmen of the Student Editorial Board for 1940-1941. New members of that Board, to succeed those who have graduated, will be chosen during the Summer and announced in the first issue next year.

NEWS OF THE LAW SCHOOL

The Sixth Annual Law School Banquet was held at the Chesapeake Club in Baltimore on Saturday Evening, May 4, 1940. G. Ridgely Sappington, Esq., of the Baltimore City Bar and a member of the part-time faculty, served as toastmaster.

The principal speaker of the evening was the Hon. Francis Neal Parke, Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, and Chief Judge of the Fifth Judicial Circuit. Dr. H. C. Byrd, President of the University, and Dean Roger Howell of the Law School also addressed the gathering. Among the honorary guests were members of the judiciary and officials of the bar associations.

The graduating classes presented to the Law School an etching of the late Mr. Justice Benjamin N. Cardozo, of the United States Supreme Court. Dean Howell accepted the gift on behalf of the School, and also announced the names of those elected to the Maryland Chapter of the Order of the Coif, national honorary society for scholarship in law. These include the Hon. W. Calvin Chesnut, elected to honorary membership in the Order, and the following members of the graduating classes, elected to membership by virtue of their standing in scholarship in the courses taken in the School:

John T. Fey

Solomon Kaplan

John O. Herrmann

J. Benson Saks

C. Awdry Thompson

Certificates of membership in the Order, and the gold keys indicating such membership were presented to those elected. There were also presented to those members of the graduating classes who had served on the Student Editorial Board of the REVIEW the certificates of service thereon.

Officers of the Student Council of the Law School for 1940-1941, elected recently, are: President, Anthony W. Kraus, Jr., of next year's Third Year Day Class; Vice-President, Frederick B. Rhodes, Jr., of next year's Fourth Year Evening Class; and Secretary-Treasurer, John Streett Baldwin, of next year's Second Year Evening Class.

At the Annual Commencement of the University, held at College Park on Saturday, June 1, a class of forty-six was graduated from the Law School. Nine members of the class, all members of the Student Editorial Board of the REVIEW, were graduated with honors. These include: Charles E. Bichy, Jr.; L. Whiting Farinholt, Jr.; John T. Fey; Thomas M. Hedrick; John O. Herrmann; Solomon Kaplan; Emma S. Robertson; J. Benson Saks; and C. Awdry Thompson.

Of these, Mr. Saks has been awarded a Sterling Research Fellowship at the Yale University School of Law for post-graduate study in 1940-1941; and Mr. Fey has been awarded an Alumni Scholarship for study at the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration.
