NEWS OF THE LAW SCHOOL

The Annual Honor Case in the Practice Court was held on Monday, April 27, 1942, in the Auditorium of the Law School building, before a Court composed of Hon. Henry D. Harlan, former Chief Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City and Dean Emeritus of the Law School; Hon. Carroll T. Bond, Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals of Maryland; Dean Roger Howell of the Law School; and G. Ridgely Sappington, Esq., of the Baltimore City Bar, and Director of the Practice Court of the Law School.

The subject-matter of the case was that of the right of a resident alien enemy to institute a suit during time of war. The case was argued by student-counsel as follows: Messrs. Marvin Mandell and Richard W. Case for the appellants; and Messrs. Louis Glick and Edward B. Reddy for the appellees. The prize for the most lawyer-like presentation of the case was awarded to Mr. Case.

At the gathering for the Honor Case, presentation was made to those entitled thereto of the certificates of election to the Maryland Chapter of the Order of the Coif, national honorary society for scholarship in law; and certificates of service on the Student Editorial Board of the REVIEW, for those members of the graduating classes who had served on the Board.

Those elected to the Order of the Coif include Hon. Carroll T. Bond, Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, elected to honorary membership in the Order; and the following members of the graduating classes, elected to membership by virtue of their standing in scholarship in the courses taken in the School:

RICHARD W. CASE

JOSEPH H. GRADY

WILLIAM W. MAHONEY

Those students elected to the Coif received, in addition to the certificates thereof, the gold keys which indicate membership in the Order.
