NEWS OF THE LAW SCHOOL

Two members of the full time faculty, Messrs. Frederick W. Invernizzi and L. Whiting Farinholt, Jr. have been promoted from Associate Professor of Law to Professor of Law.

Professor G. Kenneth Reiblich has rejoined the full time faculty after an absence of around five years with the legal staff of the Consolidated Gas Electric Light and Power Company of Baltimore City. Prior to that, Professor Reiblich had been Professor of Law from 1930 to 1944. Professor Reiblich will be teaching the courses in Constitutional Law, Administrative Law, and Public Utilities.

There were 478 students enrolled in the Law School in the Fall of 1949. Of these, 261 were in the Day school, and 217 were in the Evening school. The entering Day class contained 117 members and the entering Evening class contained 87 members. There were 89 colleges and universities represented in the pre-legal training of the student body.

CONCERNING THE REVIEW

The REVIEW announces the Reprint Series of the MARYLAND LAW REVIEW. This will involve the separate reprinting, in pamphlet form, of certain articles or pairs of articles from earlier numbers of the REVIEW which are in demand on a separate basis. The REVIEW is no longer able to sell odd numbers from its file of back issues, as they are being saved for binding in complete sets or for sale for such purpose, and so it was decided to reprint separately certain articles which are in demand as such.

For the present, only such articles from the REVIEW itself as may be in demand by lawyers or students will be reprinted. Later on, it may prove feasible also to reprint in the same series articles in demand by the students at the Law School, such as those published by faculty members in other law reviews, and similar material useful in teaching. None of these latter have yet been arranged for but it is anticipated that, if the Series proves successful, they may follow.

The Reprint Series are to be sold at the standard price each of 98¢, plus 2¢ State Sales Tax, total $1.00, payable in advance, and postage will be prepaid. Orders should be addressed to the REVIEW offices, with remittance, and the Reprints may be ordered by number.

The following three Reprints are now available, and others will be announced at a later date:

1. Everstine, The Legislative Process in Maryland, 10 Maryland Law Review 91-155 (from Vol. X, No. 2, Spring 1949); and Everstine, Titles of Legislative Acts, 9 Maryland Law Review 197-245 (from Vol. IX, No. 3, Summer 1948).
2. Strahorn, Void and Voidable Marriages in Maryland and Their Annulment, 2 Maryland Law Review 211-259 (from Vol. II, No. 3, April 1938); and Strahorn, The Confusing Maryland Domestic Relations Procedures, 4 Maryland Law Review 275-296 (from Vol. IV, No. 3, April 1940).
3. Kaufman, The Maryland Ground Rent—Mysterious But Beneficial, 5 Maryland Law Review 1-72 (from Vol. V, No. 1, December 1940).
