

FACULTY FEATS

IN MEMORIAM

Frederick E. Beachley '32

The Hon. Harry A. Cole '49

The Hon. Charles E. Edmondson '39

Ellis M. Fell '29

Stephen G. Friedler '62

Bennett Gilbert Gaines '73

Michael W. Ganzhorn '58

Stanley Gilchrist '82

Sigmund R. Kallins '25

Andrew J. Krug '55

Archibald E. Mackay '57

Edward C. Mackie '52

Peter T. Merani '77

Janel T. Pustlinik '93

Bernard C. Vincenti '41

The Hon. Edward O. Weant Jr. '49

Jeanette R. Wolman, Esq. '24

Hungdah Chiu presented "China Most-Favored-Nation (MFN) Status," hearing before the Committee on Finance, United States Senate, 104th Congress, Second Session, June 6, 1996.

Douglas Colbert was awarded the Excellence Award in the Advancement of Unpopular Causes, for advocating the provision of legal representation to indigent persons at bail hearings, presented by the Fellows of the Maryland State Bar Foundation, (1999).

Deborah Hellman presented "The Constitutional Significance of Status," Legal Theory Workshop, University of Pennsylvania, March 1.

Stanley S. Herr co-authored A Guide to Consent, American Association of Mental Retardation, January, with Joan O'Sullivan. He presented "Is the ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) Exportable? Comparative Experiences," chair and panelist, 93rd Annual Meeting of the American Society of International Law, Washington, D.C., March

27. In addition, Herr was awarded the Faculty Award for Excellence in Public Service, University System of Maryland Board of Regents, April 9 and the Legal Excellence Award for Advancing the Rights of the Disadvantaged, presented by the Fellows of the Maryland Bar Foundation, March 23.

Susan Leviton was awarded the Child Advocacy Award, Maryland Interdisciplinary Council for Children and Adolescents, Jan. 23.

Dana Morris was appointed the NALP Liaison to the ABA Commission on Minorities in the Profession.

Robert Percival authored "Environmental Legislation and the Problem of Collective Action," 9 Duke Environmental Law & Policy Forum 9, (1998). He was awarded the Amazon.com Award for Best-Selling Book in Environmental Law in 1998 (for Law and the Environment: A Multi-disciplinary Reader).

Rena Steinzor authored "The Legislation of Unintended Consequences,"

9 Duke Environmental Law & Policy Forum 9, (1998). She also authored "Reinventing Environmental Regulation: The Dangerous Journey from Command to Self-Control," 22 Harvard Environmental Law Review 103-202 (1998), selected for inclusion in Volume 30 of the Land Use and Environment Law Review (1999).

Edward Tomlinson presented "Security for a Commercial Loan: Historical and International Perspectives," Conference of the Society of Ancient Near Eastern Law, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md., March 20.

Marley Weiss authored "The Supreme Court 1997-1998 Labor and Employment Law Term (Part 1): The Sexual Harassment Decisions," 14 The Labor Law 261 (1998).

Karen Czapan斯基 authored "Interdependencies, Families, and Children," 39 Santa Clara Law Review 957 (1999).

Karen Rothenberg authored "Being Human: Cloning and the Challenges for Public Policy," 27 Hofstra Law Review 639 (Spring 1999).