NEWS OF THE LAW SCHOOL

Beginning with the Fall Term of the 1954-55 school year, the full-time faculty has been increased from eight to ten by the appointment of two Assistant Professors of Law, Messrs. Lewis D. Asper and William P. Cunningham. This represents the first change in the full-time faculty since the retirement of Professor Edwin G. W. Ruge in the Summer of 1953. The other full-time teachers continue, as follows: Dean Howell, and Professors Arnold, Farinholt, Invernizzi, Jones, Reiblich, Reno and Strahorn.

Assistant Professor Lewis D. Asper received his A.B. degree in 1943 from the University of Minnesota, and his LL.B. in 1951 from Columbia University. He has done post-graduate work in Public Law and Government at the University of Minnesota, 1946-47, and Columbia University, 1947-48. During World War II he served in the United States Marine Corps in the Pacific Theatre. During 1951-52 he taught at the Law School of the University of Porto Rico. He is a member of the New York Bar, and practiced in New York City during 1952-54. He is teaching Contracts, Bills and Notes, and Trade Regulation during the current year.

Assistant Professor William P. Cunningham received his A.B. degree in 1948 (as of 1944), and his LL.B. in 1948, both from Harvard University. During World War II he served in the United States Army Air Force in the Pacific Theatre. He is a member of the Massachusetts and Maryland Bars and practiced in Boston from 1948 to 1953. During 1953-54 he was a Teaching Fellow in the First Year Group Work Program of the Harvard Law School. He is teaching Taxation, Corporations, Agency, and Legal Bibliography during the current year.

Professor Frederick W. Invernizzi of the full-time faculty, who has for several years served as Reporter to the Standing Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, is on leave of absence from the latter position for this year. This is in order that he may serve as temporary Administrative Assistant to the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals of Maryland for the purpose of making a study of the State judicial system, preliminary to the organization of the projected Administrative Office of the Courts of Maryland. Professor Invernizzi continues his teaching at the Law School as heretofore.

The work of Reporter to the Rules Committee will be carried on by the Acting (and also Assistant) Reporter, Joseph O. Kaiser, Esq., of the Baltimore City Bar, who is also Lecturer on Pleading on the part-time faculty of the Law School.
