

Books Received

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.law.umaryland.edu/mlr>

Recommended Citation

Books Received, 32 Md. L. Rev. 323 (1972)

Available at: <http://digitalcommons.law.umaryland.edu/mlr/vol32/iss3/8>

This Book Review is brought to you for free and open access by the Academic Journals at DigitalCommons@UM Carey Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Maryland Law Review by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@UM Carey Law. For more information, please contact smccarty@law.umaryland.edu.

Books Received

BLOOD IN MY EYE. By George Jackson. Bantam Books, Inc. (1972). Finished just prior to the author's death in an alleged attempt to escape from San Quentin Prison, this book reveals his innermost thoughts on the poor, the imprisoned and the pending "revolution."

THE DISCONNECTED. By Penn Kimball. Columbia University Press (1972). A comprehensive study of the voting practices of impoverished minorities.

DRUGS & THE PUBLIC. By Norman E. Zinberg and Richard A. Falk. Simon & Schuster (1972). Another in the recent influx of works on drug use in today's society and the implications of its continued illegality, this book traces the changing public attitude on the subject and the difficulties encountered with the present laws, concluding with proposals for curing the morass now associated with the area.

THE ECONOMICS OF ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY. By James Hite et al. American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research (1972). A discussion of environmental problems from the standpoint of resource allocation.

FEDERAL JUDGES: THE APPOINTING PROCESS. By Harold W. Chase. University of Minnesota Press (1972). This book traces the political and personal interplay behind the appointing process as it applies to federal judges of Article III courts, with particular focus upon judicial selection during the Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnson administrations.

PREVENTIVE DETENTION IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA: THE FIRST TEN MONTHS. By Nan C. Bases and William F. McDonald. Vera Institute of Justice (1972). A description of the experience of the nation's capital with preventive detention during the first ten months of its operation, including a discussion of issues arising under the statute and a narrative of cases brought during the study period.

PRIVATE INTEREST AND PUBLIC GAIN: THE DARTMOUTH COLLEGE CASE, 1819. By Francis N. Stites. The University of Massachusetts Press (1972). History of the landmark constitutional decision concentrating upon the sociological, historic and personal factors in the process behind the decision.

THE PRISON AND THE PRISONER. By Dorothy Campbell Tompkins. Institute of Governmental Studies (1972). A bibliography of publications which deal with prison administration and prisoner's rights.

PROGRAMS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM. Vera Institute of Justice (1972). A report on the ten year efforts of the Vera Institute of Justice to introduce reforms into the New York City criminal justice system.

THE TIME-LIFE FAMILY LEGAL GUIDE. By the Editors of Time-Life Books. Time, Inc. (1971). Written with the aid of a distinguished board of legal consultants, this book is an elementary explanation of various areas of the law which affect the middle class layman.