EDITORS' NOTE

This issue, as promised, is devoted entirely to Maryland law. Lead articles on close corporations by Ronald M. Shapiro, and on the Maryland Antitrust Act by Professor William L. Reynolds, II, together with James D. Wright, Esq., are followed by the Review's newest feature, the Survey of Maryland Court of Appeals Decisions 1974-1975. The Review plans to make publication of the Survey an annual event and hopes that it will be especially useful to members of the Maryland Bench and Bar. Special credit is owing to John D. Bates, editor of the Survey, for his monumental effort in bringing the first installment to fruition.

The Editorial Board for 1976-1977, who have assumed substantial responsibility for getting issues one and two of Volume thirty-six to press, are as follows:
