ERRATA

An article appearing in our last issue—J. Aiken, D. Koplow, L. Lerman, J. Ogilvy, P. Schrag, The Learning Contract in Legal Education, 44 MD. LAW REV. 1047 (1985)—is incorrect as originally published. All subscribers were issued reprints of the corrected version of the article.

The Editors apologize for the error. In addition, the Editors would like to reproduce for our readers the corrected credentials of two of the authors:

LISA G. LERMAN: Associate, Lobel, Novins and Lamont, Washington, D.C. From 1982 to 1984, Ms. Lerman was an instructor at the Center for Applied Legal Studies, Georgetown University Law Center. In 1984-85, she was Visiting Assistant Professor of Law, West Virginia University College of Law.

J. P. OGILVY: Associate Professor of Law, Thurgood Marshall School of Law, Texas Southern University. Professor Ogilvy was an instructor at the Center for Applied Legal Studies, Georgetown University Law Center, from 1980 to 1983.
