Judicial Restraint?
By Geoff Brown
An independent judiciary is one of the cornerstones of American democracy and the rule of law. But increasing challenges to the authority of judges have many in the legal community concerned about maintaining the rightful balance of power.

The Argument for Oral Advocacy
By Devin Powell
Considered a vanishing breed, skilled practitioners of the oral argument command attention from Moot Court to the Supreme Court.

Bringing Military Tribunals into Focus
By Mike Field
How do you draw the line between national security and individual rights? A new movie, developed in collaboration with the law school, sheds fresh insights on the issues so fundamental to the secrecy-shrouded U.S. military tribunals at Guantanamo, Cuba.

Matters of Judgment
Give Due Process Its Due
By Professor Shernryn Ifill
The “Forum of Principle” Revisited
By Professor Mark A. Graber
Departments

3 Dean's Message

4 UMLaw Cites
Faculty wit and wisdom on issues of the day

6 Focus on Faculty
Congressional Testimony; Leadership in Legal Education; New Books; National Recognition

9 Conferences and Symposia
Judging Genes; Constitutional Injustice; Contracts in IP Litigation; Documentary Film and Criminal Justice; Distinguished Visiting Professors; SARBOX Five Years Later; Diversity in Legal Employment

14 Community: Students and Alumni
Commencement: Aaron Gavant '09; UMLaw at the SCOTUS; Myerowitz Competition; WLE Anniversary; BLSA Banquet; MPILP Auction; Reunion; Honors Banquet; Bernard Manekin '36; Andre Davis '78

44 Making an Impact Campaign

48 Faculty
Promotions; New Faculty; Distinguished Visitors

50 Emeritus Faculty
Andy King - a scholar who put students first

52 Faculty Publications, Presentations, and Honors

56 Perspectives
Environmental and public health in China

57 Board of Visitors

58 Docket
Events during the year ahead