BUILDING BRIDGES
After Baltimore’s Great Fire in 1904 and throughout his influential career, Francis King Carey believed that a strong relationship between law and business creates a powerful engine to lift up all citizens.

BY RICHARD BYRNE

FINANCIAL LEGISLATION TAKES A NEW TRACK
The Dodd-Frank Act has dramatically changed the legal landscape for corporations and consumers alike, creating myriad opportunities for lawyers to guide clients in the uncertain months ahead.

BY RICH SHEA
ILLUSTRATION BY GUY PARSONS

SMALL BUSINESS, BIG NEEDS
During tough financial times, small firms look to their lawyers for wide-ranging expertise to pilot them through rough waters. Plus: Modernizing the Maryland LLC.

BY BARRY RASCOVAR
ILLUSTRATION BY PETER FERGUSON

BUSINESS LAW PROGRAM NAVIGATES A NEW COURSE
Debuting this fall, the new Business Law Track promises to be more hands-on, making graduates more appealing than ever to potential recruiters.

BY RICH SHEA