CULTIVATING SCHOLARSHIP
By Veronica L. Naismith
Nurturing faculty research and scholarship is a top priority for the law school. Several new initiatives are helping faculty break new ground.

HEALTH CARE AND THE LAW: A STRONG PRESCRIPTION FOR THE FUTURE
By Veronica L. Naismith
With health care issues at the forefront of today's news, the dynamic Law & Health Care Program is contributing to the debate—with real world answers.

FREEING WALTER ARVINGER
By Anne R. Grant
A plea of innocence, dedication of students, and creativity of innovative professors led to freedom for one Baltimore man.

In Memoriam: Ryan Easley

WOMEN IN THE BOARDROOM: STEPPING UP TO THE CHALLENGE
By Sarah Achenbach
The Business Law Program examines an important trend in the post-Enron world: how women are changing corporate governance.
Departments

3 DEAN’S MESSAGE

4 CONFERENCES AND SYMPOSIA

12 PUBLICATIONS, PRESENTATIONS, AND HONORS

18 NEW FACULTY APPOINTMENTS

19 EMERITUS FACULTY: Edward Tomlinson and Abraham Dash

20 LEADERS OF THE PACK By Nancy Zibron
The inaugural class of Leadership Scholars sets a high standard for the law school.

42 ALUMNI OF NOTE: PLAYING IN THE BIG LEAGUES
By Gary Libman
Alum Jamie McCourt lives out a dream, running the operations of the L.A. Dodgers.

Also: Key Player—Maryland Stadium Authority’s Alison Asti; Big Hitters: Percival’s Winning Softball Team; Fitting Tributes: Newly Endowed Scholarships

46 NEWS FROM THE SCHOOL By Nancy Zibron
New website launched; Thurgood Marshall library portal; New students’ receptions

48 DOCKET
The events of the coming year at the School of Law