The 1993 Law School Fund Board announces that, with the help of over 200 alumni volunteers, the Law School Fund reached nearly $400,000. Over 37 percent of our graduates participated which, with respect to participation, keeps the University of Maryland School of Law in the top 10 percent among all law schools in the country.

Raising over $60,000 during the first night of the annual phonathons indicated that this would be a good year for fundraising at the School of Law. The phonathons serve as the major tool to reach our graduates and enlist their support for the annual fund. During the 1993 campaign year, over 3,000 graduates were reached by classmates. Approximately 2,000 graduates were reached by students in a follow-up effort.

The annual fund has helped to provide 80 percent of students with direct financial tuition assistance and loans. It also provided funding for new library resource materials to meet the constantly growing needs of student academics. The purchase of new computers for both student and faculty use was also funded through the annual fund.

The School of Law is positioned academically to become one of the nation’s top law schools. With a clinical program that was rated among the top three in the country by U. S. News & World Report, state-of-the-art environmental law, business law and health care law programs, the University of Maryland School of Law is on its way to becoming one of the best public law schools in the country. It is support from graduates that provide the School of Law with the funds to enhance these programs.

1994 brings new challenges for the School of Law and your assistance is needed to help us reach major goals. If you are interested in volunteering to call your classmates during the annual phonathon, please call the alumni office at 410-706-2070.
Recognition of Distinguished Support

The School of Law acknowledges with gratitude our leading contributors and loyal supporters. Not only do these graduates and friends contribute their financial resources ($1,000 or more), but many devote their time and energy as further evidence of their commitment to the law school and the legal profession.

Partnership in Excellence

The Partnership in Excellence recognizes individuals for their extraordinary commitment to advancing legal education through their gifts of $5,000 or more in one year. Partners receive an engraved pewter tray.

We are pleased to recognize the generosity of these distinguished alumni by displaying their names on plaques at the law school. In addition, members of the Partnership, the Counselors and the Maryland Law School Club are invited to become part of the School of Law's cultural, intellectual and social life by participating in lectures, symposia and other special events.
The impact of contributions to the Law School Fund can be seen throughout the School of Law. From activities that enhance the quality of life, to faculty who strengthen the quality of the curriculum and communications that keep you in touch with your alma mater—these are all ways we spend vital Law School Fund monies.

Student Life
Alumni contributions enable the School of Law to provide a more comfortable atmosphere for students from the beginning to the end of their educational program. Contributions paid for an orientation program for entering students, graduation events, receptions following the Myerowitz Moot Court competition and the “pizza nights” Dean Gifford holds every semester in an effort to stay in touch with evening division students.

Facilities
The Alumni and Development Office has a new home. Having outgrown its space in the law school, the office is now located on the ground floor of the Maryland Bar Center at Fayette and Greene Streets. This move was made possible through the support of alumni.

Faculty
A law school could not survive without outstanding faculty. In order to retain our best and brightest faculty members, your donations provided travel money as well as salary supplements. Money is also used to recruit new faculty to the School of Law.

Staff
In a time when most law school staff have gone three years without a pay increase, appreciation for their work and upbeat morale is shown through special events. These are funded through alumni contributions and help us to retain our finest and most-qualified staff.

Alumni
Alumni publications such as the JD, the dean’s report and biannual letter are supported by the Law School Fund. This is the best source to keep our graduates up to date on the accomplishments of the school, the faculty and the students. Law School Fund money also helped to support the class reunions and alumni receptions.

Dean’s Initiatives
“Embracing the real world” has come to be Dean Gifford’s motto. Through alumni support Dean Gifford has traveled throughout the state to meet with alumni and others who are interested in the School of Law.

Community Intellectual Enrichment
Guest lecturers and visiting speakers are an important part of academic life for students, faculty and alumni. During 1993, a variety of speakers was brought to the law school, including:

- Professor Kendall Thomas, Columbia University Law School
- Professor Erhard Blakenburg, Free University of Amsterdam
- Professor Daniel Ortiz, University of Virginia Law School

Computers
New computers and equipment can be an essential part of ensuring that the students, faculty and staff are able to work as efficiently as possible. In order to stay up to speed with the times, Law School Fund monies are used to purchase such equipment.
