50s

1953: Rosemary "Dusty" Betts was named Delaware's Mother of the Year for 1994. William B. Dulany received the National Gold Heart Award from the American Heart Association. He has been an active volunteer leader for over 35 years and is a former national chairman of the board. Paul A. Pumpian was elected vice president of the D.C. Federation of Chapters (seven chapters, 1,700 members) of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees at its recent biennial convention. He continues to chair the federation's National Legislative Committee, a position he has held since 1992, and is treasurer of the Southwest D.C. Chapter of N.A.R.F.E.

60s

1964: Richard R. Goldberg was named partner of the law firm of Ballard, Spahr, Andrews & Ingersoll. He has served at The Rouse Company for 23 years, where he was vice president and associate general counsel and handled sophisticated financing and real estate projects. At Ballard, he will continue his real estate practice in the firm's Philadelphia office, while working closely with Ballard's Baltimore attorneys.

1967: F. Edward Johnson was named partner of the law firm of Cummings & Lockwood. Johnson is a member of the Individual Clients Department in Cummings & Lockwood's Naples, Florida office. He joined the firm in 1985 and specializes in estate and tax planning, and estate and trust administration. Johnson is board certified by the Florida Bar in Wills, Trusts and Estates. He is a member of the American, Florida and Collier County Bar Associations and of the Estate Planning Council of Naples.

70s

1970: Allan H. Terl of Fort Lauderdale received the Florida legal profession's highest public service honor, the Tobias Simon Pro Bono Service Award, from the chief justice of the Supreme Court of Florida. Terl has dedicated his career to fighting for lesbian/gay rights and encouraging HIV/AIDS awareness.

1971: John C. Nason has been elected to the position of vice president and counsel of the Central Salisbury Revitalization Association, an active urban improvement organization directing its efforts towards downtown Salisbury, Maryland.

1972: Marilyn R. Lowney was appointed to the Board of Directors of Friends Rehabilitation Program, Inc., a nonprofit housing corporation that provides housing for low-income individuals. Champe C. McCulloch was named president of the Maryland Business Council. McCulloch is a Bell Atlantic executive with more than 18 years' experience as a government affairs, public relations and management professional. Samuel H. Wright was nominated to join the Council of Chief Legal Officers of the Conference Board. This council is limited to 75 general counsels from companies across the U.S.

1973: David L. Anderson has joined the D.C. law firm of O'Connor & Hannan as a partner specializing in environmental law. H. Michael Hickson has been chosen president of the Rotary Club of Salisbury, Maryland. He will take office July 1, 1995, as the club's 77th president. He is currently a partner in the Salisbury law firm of Banks, Nason, Hickson and Sullivan. Jerald B. Lurie has been appointed to the Executive Council of the Bar Association of Baltimore City, where he will serve as member-at-large. He is a partner focusing his practice in business law at the Baltimore law firm of Adelberg, Rudow, Dorf, Handler & Sameth.

1975: Duncan W. Keir joined the U.S. bankruptcy bench in Baltimore, expanding it to four judges. Since 1991, he was senior vice president and senior counsel at Maryland National Bank and its sister company, American Security Bank.

1976: George Y. Sugiyama was named partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Dorsey & Whitney. Sugiyama, a noted environmental lawyer and air pollution law specialist, will continue his practice in permitting, compliance enforcement and other areas of environmental law.
November 2
Moot Court, "Is Mandatory HIV Testing of Pregnant Women Legal?"
5:30 p.m., Davidge Hall

November 3
Inaugural Lecture, "The Evolution of Consciousness"
Dr. Derek Denton, 12 noon, Davidge Hall

November 4
Inauguration Ceremony
1:30 p.m., Westminster Hall

Call 410-706-8035, for complete information.

1977: Marna Lynn McLendon announced her candidacy for Howard County state's attorney. McLendon will be running as a Republican.

1978: Harriet E. Cooperman is joining the law firm of Weinberg and Green and will chair its Labor and Employment Law Group. She was also named to the 1993-94 List in the area of Labor and Employment Law in The Best Lawyers in America. Woodward/White Inc. Ellen Scalettar, D-Conn. announced that she will seek a second term as state representative from the 114th House District, which encompasses Woodbridge and parts of Orange and Derby.

1979: Alison C. Asti was named president of the Bar Association of Baltimore City. Matt Paavola has just completed five years of partnership with his brother, Samuel Paavola. The law firm of Paavola & Paavola has offices in Baltimore and Anne Arundel Counties, specializing in civil litigation. Robert R. Price III and Judith Warfield Price have formed the law offices of Price & Price, L.L.C. with Robert R. Price Jr. from the class of 1952. The law office is located at 103 Lawyers Row in Centreville, Maryland. Ms. Price was formerly an assistant attorney general and deputy counsel for the Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development. Messrs. Price have practiced together since 1979.

Ellen Scalettar
Best Lawyer
List in the area of Labor and Employment Law in The Best Lawyers in America, Woodward/White Inc. Ellen Scalettar, D-Conn. announced that she will seek a second term as state representative from the 114th House District, which encompasses Woodbridge and parts of Orange and Derby.

1980: Douglas J. Antonio and wife are pleased to announce the birth of their son, Zachary Douglas. M. E. (Peggy) Garber was promoted to general counsel and external affairs vice president for Nevada Bell, a subsidiary of Pacific Telesis Group. Edward Hargadon is the principal counsel for the Maryland Port Administration. Michael S. Levin was elected to the Board of Directors of Homecrest House, a nonprofit housing program for senior citizens in Wheaton, Maryland.

Jack L. B. Gohn, formerly a partner in the Baltimore office of Whiteford, Taylor & Preston, is pleased to announce the opening of his own law office in Towson, Maryland. Gohn will continue his general civil and administrative practice. Leonard Fishman of Hopewell, New Jersey, has been nominated as state health commissioner by Governor Christie Whitman. He would be the first nonphysician to hold the post. He represented the hospital and nursing home industry before joining the government.

1982: Dane E. Taylor has been appointed secretary of The Kelly-Springfield Tire Company. Taylor joined the tire company in 1991.

1983: Virginia Wood Barnhart was appointed deputy attorney at Baltimore County's Office of Law by County Executive Roger Hayden. Margaret Dearden Robinson has been appointed real estate counsel for Borders, Inc. in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Robinson is the only in-house counsel with Borders, and primarily oversees all real estate legal work necessary for opening approximately 25 new Borders stores a year as well as operating the existing stores.

1984: Neil M. Levy is proud to announce the one-year anniversary of his solo practice. Levy's practice, which is located in Owings Mills, includes business, real estate and commercial matters.

1985: Joan Grayson Cohen has been named coordinator of the Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention Project. The project grew out of the Jewish Community Task Force on Child Abuse, a collective effort by over 30 sectarian and non-sectarian constituencies to respond to the problem of child maltreatment. David D. Gilliss became a partner in the Baltimore law firm of Niles, Barton & Wilmer. His practice includes general civil litigation, concentrating in the areas of surety, fidelity, construction and commercial law. Jeff Gregory was promoted to vice president and general manager of King Pharmaceuticals, a generic pharmaceutical manufacturer in Bristol, Tennessee. He currently resides in Wytheville, Virginia with his wife, Terri. Mark Horak was ordained as a priest in June and began a new low-cost legal services program for area immigrants and refugees. Michael LeMire was named president of the Dorchester Chamber of Commerce. Ruth J. Vernet left the Navy as a lieutenant commander and is now chief assistant public defender for Washtenaw County in Ann Arbor, Michigan, where she resides with her husband, Frank, and two sons, ages 4 and 8.
S.I.T...STAY IN TOUCH

Please let us know where you are and what you are doing. Help us keep you in the loop!

Date
Name
Address
Phone Number

What's New?

Please return to: Alumni Newsletter Editor, University of Maryland School of Law, 500 West Baltimore Street, Baltimore, MD 21201-1786 or FAX us at (410) 706-0596.

Editor's Note: If your class note doesn't appear in the next issue, we promise we haven't forgotten about you! Due to the volume of S.I.T.s we receive, there may be a delay in publication. Thank you for your patience.

1986: Katherine A. Birrane was elected as chair of the Young Lawyers’ Section. She is associated with the firm of Kramon & Graham, P.A. and her practice focuses on insurance-related litigation and transactions. Eamonn J. Gordon is pleased to announce the opening of his law offices at 42 N. Main Street in Bel Air, Maryland.

1987: Deborah Mack opened her own law office in Ellicott City. She is doing general practice, including bankruptcy, wills and criminal and domestic law.

1988: Francine L. Applewhite has joined the Trademark Practice Group of Reebok International, Ltd. in Stoughton, Massachusetts. Darrell N. Braman Jr. has joined T. Rowe Price Associates as an associate counsel in their legal department. Before joining T. Rowe Price, Braman was with the Securities & Exchange Commission as special counsel. Awilda R. Marquez is currently serving as White House liaison to the State Department, a political appointment made by the Clinton Administration. She will soon move to another political appointment: Chief Counsel of the Economic Development Administration, Department of Commerce. Philip S. Roberts, formerly associated with the law firm of Eccleston and Wolf, is pleased to announce the opening of the Law Office of Philip S. Roberts located in Towson, Maryland. Seth Rotenberg has become an associate in the Real Estate Department of Gordon, Feinblatt, Rothman, Hoffberger & Hollander.

1989: Thomas D. Herndon is now working out of Columbia, Maryland, investigating discrimination complaints for the Department of Defense. He also continues to maintain a small part-time practice out of his home office at 113 Hillside Road in Catonsville, Maryland, focusing primarily on the needs of Korean clients.

90s

1990: L.A. Brickner and her husband, Michael Filipczak, welcomed twin boys, Dane and Stone, into the world in March.

1991: Patricia L. Konecke and her husband, Ralph Curry, are celebrating the birth of their daughter, Alison B. Curry.

1992: Jonathan Ilsong Ahn has been admitted as a partner in the law firm of Goodell, DeVries, Leech & Gray. Jonathon P. Kagan, former law clerk to the Honorable Robert H. Heller Jr., Anne Arundel County Circuit Court, has joined Brassel & Baldwin, P.A. in Annapolis, as an associate. Michael R. Stern joined the law firm of Levan, Schimmel, Belman & Abramson, P.A. as an associate. He practices in the areas of land use law, zoning, real estate and administrative law.

1993: Kamil Ismail has become an associate with the law firm of Goodell, DeVries, Leech & Gray. Jonathan P. Kagan, former law clerk to the Honorable Robert H. Heller Jr., Anne Arundel County Circuit Court, has joined Brassel & Baldwin, P.A. in Annapolis, as an associate. Michael R. Stern joined the law firm of Levan, Schimmel, Belman & Abramson, P.A. as an associate. He practices in the areas of land use law, zoning, real estate and administrative law.

IN MEMORIAM

Sarah Rosenberg Burke '23
George L. Hoffman '25
Leon Abramson '27
O.B. Duckett '28
Jacob Blum '29
James G. McCabe '36
Charles E. Kelly '41
Leroy S. Applefeld '43
Malcolm B. Smith '50
Richard N. Hambleton '51
Louis P. Poulton '51
Julius R. Israel '54
Edward G. Comrie '56
Robert J. Gerstung '57
John S. Lalley '57
Saul J. McGrane '58
R. Randolph Victor '60
Robert S. Bennett Jr. '73
Jerome S. Colt '77
Gregory J. Olsen '77
Susan C. Hurwitz '82