ALUMNI BRIEFS

TEXAS ALUMNI GROUPS ARE ON THE RISE

January, 1996 marked the first Texas alumni receptions in Houston, Dallas and San Antonio. Paul Krieger ’68 hosted the Houston area reception January 3 at his firm, Pravel, Hewitt, Kimball & Krieger, located in downtown Houston. The Houston alumni group expressed a strong desire to start an alumni chapter that will meet regularly throughout the year.

On January 4, Dennis DuBois ’71 hosted the Dallas/Fort Worth Alumni Reception at his home outside of downtown Dallas. A longtime friend of the School of Law, DuBois graciously opened his home and glass sculpture collection to the first gathering of Dallas/Fort Worth alumni.

Dean Gifford hosted the San Antonio reception at a luncheon at the Rio Rio Cantina. Judge Richard Brodsky ’72 and Mike Hardy ’80, federal immigration judge and assistant U.S. attorney respectively, came to have the ear of the Dean in between programs of the AALS annual meeting.

Dean Gifford’s appearance at all three events reinforced the School of Law’s commitment to facilitating national alumni receptions to ensure that once a Maryland Law graduate, always a Maryland Law graduate. If you are interested in helping to plan a reception for graduates in your area, please call David Carrera in the alumni office at (410) 706-2070.
