About the Journal: The University of Maryland Law Journal of Race, Religion, Gender, and Class provides a forum for academics, judges, and practitioners to engage in a scholarly discussion of legal issues pertaining to race, religion, gender, and class. The Journal is not committed to a particular political ideology, but rather is dedicated to fostering intellectual discourse on issues at the intersection of public policy and the law, as well as analyzing the effects of law, policy, and judicial decisions on different religious, racial, ethnic, economic, and social groups. Each year, the Journal publishes two issues and hosts academic symposia dedicated to fostering dialogue and debate on these topics.

Submissions: The Journal welcomes the submission of unsolicited manuscripts. At this time, we only publish student pieces written by our own staff members. We encourage authors to submit their work electronically via the ExpressO online submission service or via email to rrgc@law.umaryland.edu. Manuscript citations should appear in footnotes and should conform to the 20th edition of The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation.

Subscriptions: A subscription to the Journal is $30 per year. Checks may be made payable to the University of Maryland and mailed to the Managing Editor at the address below. To pay by credit card, please visit our website.

Back issues of the Journal may be obtained from William S. Hein & Co., Inc., 1285 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14209-1987 (1-800-828-7571). Issues of the Journal may also be accessed on HeinOnline, LexisNexis, and Westlaw.
