The reunions for the classes of '81, '86 and '91 were held on the Lady Baltimore with a moonlight cruise of the Inner Harbor. Diners and dancers looked out on a cold November evening from the enclosed cruise ship as they listened and danced to music provided by a disc jockey. Members of the Class of 1986 met for brunch on Sunday at Windows in the Renaissance Hotel. About 150 alumni gathered for a lively time.

If you are an alum of the class of '52, '57, '62, '67, '72, '77, '82, '87 or '92, check your mail for reunion information and refer to the dates listed in the docket on page 36. If you would like to help plan your reunion, call Miriam Puhl in the alumni office at 410-706-2070.
Reunions for the classes of ’51, ’56, ’61, ’66, ’71 and ’76 were held at the Renaissance Harborplace Hotel. Alumni enjoyed Sunday brunch at the American Visionary Arts Museum (founded by Rebecca Hoffberger, wife of Roy Hoffberger ’50). Each class first held individual receptions, where they spent time catching up with friends. Then all the reunion classes gathered for dinner and enjoyed Dan White, attorney-humorist, from New York. Over 175 alumni attended the festivities.
