(Left to right) Trishana Bowden, director of development; Christie Coe, director of annual giving and alumni programs; and Shelley Gitomer, assistant dean for development and alumni relations. The development and alumni relations office has accepted the challenge of raising $8 million in private gifts from the alumni and friends of the law school for a new building. This office will be forging relationships with alumni to assure a prosperous future for the law school and its students.

We are grateful to our donors for their support throughout the year. Gifts to the Law School Fund are vital to our continued leadership in education and student opportunities.

For more information about the University of Maryland School of Law and how you can be a part of our endeavor for new facilities, technology and programs, please contact:
