Reunite
Reconnect
Rekindle

Did you ever wonder what happened to Bill who sat next to you in Torts? Or Pam with whom you pored over pages in the law library? Or how about Brian, that editor for the Business Lawyer? Do some discovering at Reunion 2000. Reunite with old friends, reconnect with a formative part of your past, and revive your law school ties!

These are the folks who suffered through law school with you. They may work in the same building or live right down the street and you still can’t seem to find the time or place to get together. All that ceases to matter at Reunion. Now is your chance to have an evening out and reminisce with your friends! Bring your significant other so he/she can meet the people you’ve been talking about since graduation.

There are three Reunion 2000 events. Find your class year listed below to see where to go and when!
